

LECTURES AND CONCERT SERIES ARE ANNOUNCED

Four concerts, including one by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, four lectures and two plays will comprise the 1958-59 lecture and concert program sponsored jointly by St. Joseph and Mt. St. Colleges, Emmitsburg.

Except for the symphony, each of the programs will be presented in DePaul Auditorium at St. Joseph College at 7:30 p.m.

The Little Singers of Paris will appear October 1. The boys' choir, directed by Msgr. Fernand Maillet, is revisiting Emmitsburg on its eighth American tour. The group's a cappella repertory includes music ranging from 16th century to the present.

Hollywood Topic

The Rev. John L. Bonn, professor at Fairfield University Graduate School, Fairfield, Conn., and novelist, biographer and authority on prisons, will lecture October 22. His subject, "Hollywood out of Focus," will concern morality and the movies.

"Russia — the Country, the People, their Schools" will be the lecture topic November 19 of Dr. Urban H. Fleege. Dr. Fleege was among a group of American educators who visited Russia this year.

The Shakespearean comedy, "As You Like It," will be presented by the Canadian Players in a return engagement November 23. Music from Bach to Broadway will be sung January 7 by the

BENEFIT HORSE SHOW SUNDAY

The first annual Ridge View American Quarter Horse Association show will be held Sunday at the farm of Jean and Lawrence Helzel, Mummansburg Rd., for the benefit of the Adams County Home.

This show has been approved by two nationwide organizations, the AQHA and the National Cutting Horse Association and by two regional associations, the Pennsylvania Quarter Horse Association and the East Coast Cutting Horse Association so that all members will receive points towards their national and regional registered championship horses. P. E. Clark, Parkersburg, W. Va., approved by both national associations, will be the judge.

There will be many open classes for all types of non-registered stock, so that they may compete for the trophies, six place ribbons and the $275 that will be given in cash prizes.

The show, beginning at 10 a.m. with registered halter classes, will include all the popular western contests such as barrel racing, calf roping and cattle cutting.

The Stone Mill Tack Shop from Dover, Pa., will display western wear. There will be pony rides and refreshments will be served.

Admission will be by donation at the gate. All sponsors will receive free ring-side parking.

440 Cases, 12 Polio Deaths

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit has been hit by its worst outbreak of polio since the introduction of Salk polio vaccine. At least 440 cases have been reported this year, with 12 deaths.

The epidemic is greater in Detroit and its immediate suburbs than in any other section of the nation.

Health authorities say about 30 to 35 per cent of the cases have been paralytic, but that no paralytic cases and no deaths have been reported among persons who received the full three-shot treatment of polio vaccine.

Mayor Louis Miriani proclaimed a state of "health emergency" in the city Tuesday and urged the almost two million residents to obtain polio shots at once.

M'MULLIN TO LEAVE POST ON OCTOBER 31

Robert J. McMullin, 303 Hanover St., director of the Adams County Child Welfare Services since June 18, 1956, will leave his post here October 31 to accept a position with the Children's Aid Society of Philadelphia, he announced, at a meeting of the Adams County Commissioners this morning at the courthouse.

McMullin announced his resignation as director of the county services in July but at that time did not set a terminal date.

He will begin his new duties in Philadelphia November 3. He expects to move his family there soon.

The commissioners said they have not engaged a successor to fill the $5,500 a year post.

McMullin will be employed in the adoption work of the agency. He graduated from Girard College and Temple University, took further studies in welfare work at the University of Chicago, and served his internship in social work with the Children's Aid Society of Philadelphia.

He is a native of the Philadelphia area and is a veteran of Navy service.

McMullin also told the commissioners that about ten members of the advisory committee of the Franklin County Child Welfare Services will attend a meeting of the Adams County Child Welfare Committee to be held October 2 at the courthouse here.

Youth Injured As Car Strikes Truck

Robert H. Topper, 19, Gettysburg R. 3, suffered a laceration above the left eye, bruise burns of the forehead, abrasions of the left knee and a possible rib fracture when his car smashed into the rear of a tractor-trailer 1 1/2 miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway Tuesday night at 10:50 o'clock.

State police said Topper was driving east in his 1955 Plymouth sedan when he apparently fell asleep and the vehicle ran into the rear of an eastbound tractor-trailer operated by Rex D. Lightner, 29, Blainburg, Pa. Damage was estimated at $1,200 to the car which was demolished and $50 to the tractor-trailer.

Topper was removed to the Warner Hospital here by a passing motorist, police said.

FIFTY FIREMEN BEGIN TRAINING SESSIONS HERE

Fifty firemen from 21 fire companies from throughout the county took part Tuesday night in the opening session of a three-evening course on Explosive Ordnance Reconnaissance taught by the 56th Ordnance Detachment of Indiantown Gap Military Reservation. The course continues tonight and ends Thursday night.

Instructors at the opening session Tuesday at the Gettysburg engine house were Capt. Robert Sill, commanding officer of the Ordnance unit; S-Sgt. Henry Ingelhart and Pvt. Virgil Wehrle.

Captain Sill told the group that the nine-hour sessions in three evenings will enable them to serve as Civil Defense reconnaissance workers to ferret out unexploded bombs and shells in case of war — or in peacetime, for we have a number of shells at Indiantown Gap now sent in from throughout the state to be rendered inactive.

Need Trained Men

When a reconnaissance worker from Civil Defense has determined the location of unexploded ordnance he takes certain steps to protect the public from the danger of the dud or delayed action bomb exploding, then reports the matter to the army which in turn sends specialists to remove and disarm the unexploded bomb, the ordinance captain said.

He added that the course being taught the firemen will instruct them in the methods of determining the size and type of the unexploded bomb, and the proper precautions to be taken — distances to evacuate persons residing nearby, etc. — to prevent injury in the event the bomb should explode before Army ordnance

CHEST AGENCY SERVICES SIX OTHER GROUPS

"Your dollars contributed to the Gettysburg Community Chest perform miracles every day," said William A. Lentz, fund drive chairman.

"In the case of the Pennsylvania United Fund, one of the agencies you support through the chest campaign, your gift is performing a million dollar miracle," Lentz explained as he outlined the way the fund operates.

"The Pennsylvania United Fund is not one agency, but six. It consists of two state, and four national, agencies who believe in the 'united way.' They have joined together, as a unit in the Pennsylvania United Fund, and they seek support as a unit through Community Chests and United Funds in the state. They do not conduct separate campaigns in Pennsylvania.

USO Is Largest

"Largest of the six PUF agencies is the USO, whose services to the Armed Forces are known around the world. There are 267 USO installations, clubs, centers and mobile units, which provide recreation, welfare and religious activities for service personnel and their families.

"The Pennsylvania Mental Health, another PUF agency, has already achieved tremendous gains in its fight against mental illness. PMH is working for stronger community mental health services; more child and adult clinics; plus improved treatment.

"The American Social Hygiene Association is working to wipe out venereal disease, which is contracted each year by nearly 2,000,000 people.

Seamen's Service

"United Seamen's Service, which is 90 per cent self-supporting, operates in foreign ports where American ships dock with precious cargo and crew.

"National Recreation Association helps military and civilian leaders plan good community recreation for servicemen and dependents.

"The Pennsylvania Welfare Forum is a statewide agency which promotes sound welfare practices in Pennsylvania through conferences, meetings and publications.

"The Pennsylvania United Fund is a non-profit, voluntary organization manned by a state-wide board of directors with a budget committee selected by local Community Chests and United Funds. The Pennsylvania United Fund also provides services to chests and funds and promotes the 'united way' in Pennsylvania," Lentz added.

"The Pennsylvania United Fund is pleased to be a part of the campaign. We know that your united campaign offers us and our agencies the opportunity to provide the best possible services at the lowest possible cost," says Harold R. Prowell, Harrisburg, an attorney who is president of the Pennsylvania United Fund.

Fred Seaton Reported In Line For White House Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported preparing today to name an above-reproach successor to Sherman Adams as his chief White House assistant.

But even Republican National Chairman Meade Adams, who played an active role in events leading to Adams' decision to retire, said he hasn't a glimmering of the presidential choice.

As an indication of how closely Eisenhower was guarding his decision, Secretary of the Interior Seaton said in Vallejo, Calif., he doesn't know whether he is being considered for the job.

"The matter of who succeeds to the post of presidential assistant is a particularly personal one with President Eisenhower," Seaton told a news conference Tuesday night.

Seaton, a former senator, left the Harold E. Stassen camp at a critical point to support Eisenhower's bid for the GOP presidential nomination in 1952. He is by all odds the choice of congressional Republicans for the job Adams is leaving.

But Seaton's reluctance to bow out of his Cabinet post heightened speculation about half a dozen other possibilities. These included Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Gruenther has served as Eisenhower's military chief of staff but now holds down the $30,000-a-year job, with fringe benefits, of president of the Red Cross. The White House post pays $22,500, headaches included.

About all that was certain in this clouded situation was that Eisenhower will act quickly to choose a man without any political strike against him to succeed Adams, who went down swinging in the season's greatest political rhabarb.

JAILED FOR COURT

Clayton C. Arbaugh, McSherrystown, was arrested Tuesday evening on a charge of desertion and non-support filed by his wife, Martha G. Arbaugh, before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. In default of $500 bail, Arbaugh was committed to the county jail for the next term of sentence court.

ACTIVITIES FOR YEAR SET UP BY SOROPTIMISTS

A program of activities for the year was adopted at the first fall meeting of the Soroptimist Club held at the home of Mrs. Robert M. Smith, E. Lincoln Ave., Tuesday evening and the chairman of six standing committees announced their goals for the year.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, president, presided with 27 members present.

The resignation of Miss Rebecca Sachs as recording secretary was accepted with regret and Miss Anna Weaver, Littlestown, was appointed by the board to fill the unexpired term.

Give "Powerful Pennies"

Miss Martha Stallsmith gave her annual treasurer's report. Her books were audited by Mrs. Curtis Flohr, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Keeney. Mrs. George W. Boehner gave the annual report of her Finance Committee.

Mrs. Donald E. Myers spoke on Founders Day which is observed by the Soroptimist clubs in all the Americas between September 29 and October 3. Following an annual custom 37 cents a con-

Man Murders Four Of His 5 Children With Shotgun

By ED MARKAITY

SPARTA, Mich. (AP)—An unemployed odd jobs worker blasted four of his five children to death with a shotgun Tuesday night. The fifth escaped by playing dead.

His estranged wife, Edith McMillan, 36, who suffered neck injuries, and the fifth child were under hospital treatment in nearby Grand Rapids.

Orland Duncan McMillan, 45, told Sheriff Arnold Pigorish: "I can only take so much. I got shot up in the war and my nerves act up."

Found dead in their home, 15 miles northwest of Grand Rapids, were McMillan's children, Ronald, 7; Bonnie, 6; Richard, 22 months; and Michael Yvonne, 10 months.

"Daddy Did This"

The fifth child, 8-year-old Orland Benjamin, suffered a head cut. Dep. Sheriff Eli Roberts, first on the scene in answer to a routine family argument call, said he found the boy sitting up in a blood-spattered bed.

"Hey, cops! Daddy did this. I played dead. He thought he killed me, too," the boy said.

Prosecutor Stuart Hoffius said the boy told of witnessing two of the deaths. He said his father

REV. ARNOLD'S SERVICES TO BE HELD FRIDAY

At the request of the Rev. Joseph Arnold, 77-year-old retired Lutheran minister and educator, who died at noon Tuesday, there will be graveside services in Evergreen Cemetery Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with the Rev. Amos D. Meyers, Hunterstown Methodist pastor, officiating. Friends may visit the Bender Funeral Home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Arnold, who resided on Gettysburg R. 4 and had been in Adams County since 1951, died as he reached the Warner Hospital Tuesday. He had been in ill health for some time.

The deceased was a native of Bayreuth, Bavaria, and he lived in Brooklyn before he was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1909. Three years later he was graduated from the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary. In that same year he married Flo Biocher, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O. Biocher of W. Confederate Ave., and they went to Africa as Lutheran missionaries.

Helped Form Aspers Church

Later the Rev. Mr. Arnold served the Benderville Lutheran Church as pastor and helped organize the Lutheran Church at Aspers. He also served the Lutheran Church at Clarion, Pa. He was a former teacher at the Clarion State Teachers' College, the Kittanning High School and for a number of years taught in the science department of the South Hills High School of Pittsburgh. He attended the University of Pittsburgh and served Lutheran Churches in the Pittsburgh Synod as a supply. He

Lincoln School PTA Will Meet Thursday

The Parent-Teacher Association of Lincoln School will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the school. The meeting will close at 9:30 p.m.

The teachers and officers of the PTA will be presented and there will be a discussion of the new hot lunch procedure. Kenneth Rinehart, business manager of the public schools, and Mrs. Morris Steinour, of the cafeteria staff, will speak on the subject.

MORE THAN 800 CATHOLICS AT SCHOOL MEET

More than 800 Catholic educators of the Harrisburg Diocese, representing 87 elementary and secondary schools whose enrollment exceeds 29,000 pupils, Tuesday attended the first of a two-day Teachers Educational Conference at Bishop McDevitt High School, Harrisburg.

The Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of the Harrisburg Diocese, welcomed the delegates.

Msgr. Robert J. Maher, superintendent of schools, introduced the Rev. Anthony F. Kane, Pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, keynote speaker.

Rev. Fr. Kane discussed "The Teacher and Scholarship." He pointed out the qualities of a good teacher and the methods of good teaching according to the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas, and stressed the role of a teacher in achieving one of the aims of Catholic education — a high degree of scholarship.

Other Speakers

At the 10 a.m. session today, John H. Treanor, of the Francis Parkman School in Jamaica Plain, Mass., addressed eighth grade teachers on "Discipline Required to Master the Art of Composition." Author of 80 articles on the art of teaching composition, Treanor also has written Treanor's English Series, dealing with grammar and composition.

During this afternoon's sessions, teachers of the elementary section heard the Rev. Richard J. Kleiber, superintendent of schools in Green Bay, Wis., and co-author of "Our Life with God," a new elementary religion series. He gave "Some Suggestions on the Preparation of Children for First Holy Communion."

Teachers of the secondary level heard Msgr. Louis Miltenberger, director of vocations in the Archdiocese of Washington, whose topic was "Religious Vocations and Motivation."

WILL DEDICATE CAMP INFIRMARY FOR DR. HOOVER

The Hoover Memorial Infirmary at Camp Nawakwa will be dedicated Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. John S. Bishop, camp director. He will be assisted by Rev. Stanley B. Jennings, Taneytown, secretary of the board of directors.

The infirmary, dedicated in memory of the late Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, former professor of practical theology at the local seminary and president of the Board of Directors of Camp Nawakwa, was constructed last spring at a cost of $6,000.

Dr. Hoover was active in the life and work of Camp Nawakwa for 30 years. He taught all of the early leadership training camps and later became a member of the board of directors.

The building was used for the first time this season. It is 24 by 36 feet, provides space for a large dispensary room, separate wards for boys and girls, or age groups, as well as private quarters for the registered nurse on duty.

An activities building, a memorial to be dedicated in memory of the late Alvin R. Nassy, Hanover, will be built next spring. Mr. Nassy was a member of the camp board from the time it was founded until his death last December.

Injured Schoolboy "Doing Very Well"

John C. Heiser, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heiser, Gettysburg R. 3, who suffered a fractured skull and body bruises last Thursday when he was hit by a station wagon while crossing the Lincoln Highway at his home after disembarking from a school bus, was reported "doing very well" at the Warner Hospital today.

The child's mother said that the youngster, who was a member of the Glenn L. Bream team in the Little League this summer, is expected to be able to "up and about in a few days."

Seven Volunteers Inducted Today

Seven volunteers left by chartered bus from Lincoln Square this morning for induction in the Armed Forces a New Cumberland. Edwin H. Stockman, New Oxford R. D., was the leader and Stanley K. Altland, York assistant leader of the group which included: Walter E. Harmal, York Springs R. D.; Roy E. Paar, Aspers R. D.; Robert L. Snyder, Littlestown R. D.; Cecil R. Guise, Biglerville, and Robert C. Harner, Littlestown. Also 11 were called to physical exams at New Cumberland.

Submerged Sub Sets New Record

BOSTON (AP) — The nuclear submarine Seawolf has remained submerged more than a month and a half.

Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover says Seawolf submerged Aug. 5 and by Monday had set a record of 48 days under water—surpassing the submerge records of two other atomic subs, Skate's 31 days and Nautilus' 28 days.

Rickover, speaking Tuesday at a chamber of commerce luncheon, left the impression Seawolf was still under water. He spoke of the 48-day record and predicted Seawolf would surpass that mark. He did not say where Seawolf is or what her mission is.

J.P. SANDERS, 70, DIES SUDDENLY MOWING LAWN

John Preston Sanders, 70, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock while mowing the lawn at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Sanders, Orrtanna R. 1. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said the death was caused by a coronary occlusion.

A native of Fairfield, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanders, he had been a farmer in Adams County and in Maryland during most of his life. He had retired as a farmer three years ago and had been employed part time by the Knouse Foods Cooperative since that time.

He had resided with his son and daughter-in-law on Orrtanna R. 1 for the last 18 months.

Nine Children Survive

His wife, the former Bessie M. Shriner, died February 14, 1953.

Survivors include nine children, 50 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and five brothers and sisters.

The children are Mrs. John Marshall, Orrtanna R. 1; Daniel Sanders, Gettysburg; Mrs. Lester Harner, Littlestown; Mrs. Naomi Sanders, Littlestown; Earl Sanders, Littlestown; Mrs. Elmer Thomas, Taneytown; Percy Sanders, Littlestown, and Blaine Sanders, with whom he resided.

The brothers and sisters are Amos Sanders, Waynesboro; Daniel Sanders, Philadelphia; Mrs. Lester Sowers, Fairfield; Frank Sanders, Fairfield, and Percy Sanders, Harrisburg.

Relatives and friends are invited to meet at the Bender Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Fairfield. Friends may call at the Bender Funeral Home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

HEAR TALK ON U.S. AND CANADA

"Economic Relations Between the United States and Canada" was the topic of an address Tuesday evening by Dr. Milton L. Stokes, head of the economics department at Gettysburg College, at the first fall dinner meeting of the Adams County Torch Club. President Clarence Bartholomew presided with 32 members and two guests attending.

Dr. Stokes, who is a native of Canada, told of the rapid industrial development of Canada in recent years after a period in which raw materials had been chiefly exploited. He said Canada depends heavily upon foreign trade and that in proportion to population, Canada has the heaviest volume of foreign trade.

The speaker said the United States is Canada's largest customer and in turn Canada gets a larger share of U. S. foreign trade than any other nation. He discussed some of the recent causes of friction between the United States and Canada and listed among them restrictions on imports by the U. S., alleged "dumping" of agricultural products there by the U. S. and some of the oil shipments restrictions.

The club will place a book in the Adams County Free Library as a memorial to Dr. William O. Duck, a member of the Torch club.

Gettysburg National Park Superintendent James Myers and Burgess Wilbur L. Plank were guests at the meeting.

The meeting was held at Trinity United Church of Christ here.

CONDITION CRITICAL

The condition of Percy Miller, 167 E. Middle St., who suffered a stroke Sunday, was described as critical at the Warner Hospital today.

YORK SPRINGS WILL DEDICATE SCHOOL SUNDAY

Dr. Herbert Bryan, of the Department of Public Instruction, will deliver the address at the dedication of the new York Springs elementary school addition Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The dedication will mark the completion of the first stage of building development in the Bermudian Springs Joint School System. A new Junior-Senior High School and an elementary addition at East Berlin are in the planning stage. The total cost of the project is about $380,000 and has been financed by a bond issue which will extend over a 40-year period.

Until the new high school is ready for occupancy, the present elementary facility will be shared with about 280 high school students. The unit is designed to accommodate 408 elementary students and includes 12 regular classrooms, a special education suite, a kindergarten, a multi-purpose room with a cafeteria, health rooms, teachers' rooms, a curriculum materials room and an administrative area. The building is of steel, cement block and brick construction.

Started In 1957

Work was begun on the subject about September 15, 1957, and the major part of the work was completed for the opening of school on September 2. The general contractor was Relsinger Brothers, of Carlisle. The building was designed by the L. P. Kookin Company, architects and engineers, New Oxford. The electrical work was done by H. N. Bange, Hanover; the plumbing and heating by Diller-Wermer, Hanover.

The dedication program will begin with the prayer of invocation by the Rev. Norman L. Bortner. The York Springs unit of the high school band will play several selections. The county superintendent of schools, Clarence P. Keefe, will be introduced. Charles Spangler, president of the Bermudian Springs Joint School Board, will accept the building from Ralph T. Smith, representative of the general contractor. Other guests will include members of the school authority and the school board. Rev. Amos D. Meyers, supervising principal, will preside over the dedicatory ceremonies.

An open house will be held during the afternoon. Members of the senior class will act as guides. The PTA will serve refreshments. The public is invited to attend the program.

JOHN R. KORVER BEING RECALLED TO ACTIVE DUTY

At the regular meeting of Company A of the 313th Infantry Regiment Tuesday evening at 30 Queen St., one man was attached to the unit pending assignment orders and another member was recalled to active duty to participate in Exercise Rocky Shoals.

Sp-4 John R. Korver, New Oxford R. 1, son of William J. Korver, was notified that he will be recalled

BLASTS, FIRES AND SHOOTINGS SHAKE BEIRUT

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Shooting, heavy explosions, burning of automobiles and other violence erupted in Beirut today as President Fuad Chehab moved into his first day in office.

By midmorning official sources said six persons had been killed and a score wounded.

Under ex-President Camille Chamoun, a pro-Westerner, it was Moslems who sparked unrest and manned roadblocks. Today it was members of the Phalangist—an extremist Christian party that was causing a bloody ruckus.

General Shutdown

Security forces had orders to shoot on sight anyone illegally carrying arms on the streets. This was the toughest order given to security forces since the Lebanese crisis began in early May.

The Phalangists ordered a general shutdown of shops and services in the predominant Christian area of Beirut which includes the beachfront hotel district, the business district and residential districts.

The announced purpose of today's wave of terror was to gain revenge for last week's kidnapping of a Phalangist journalist, Fuad Haddad, by unknown persons.

Day, Night Curfew

A day and night curfew, imposed Monday and maintained through the inauguration of Chehab Tuesday, was lifted at midnight. Shortly thereafter Phalangists began manning roadblocks in various parts of Beirut and trouble began.

The port area, where American warships are docked, is flanked on one side by the Phalangists and on the other by black-shirted Moslem Najjada party extremists.

U.S. troops were sent into the port area to protect American property.

Ask Court Rule On School Fuss

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern plans to maintain segregation by changing public schools to private status face an early test in federal court.

The Little Rock School Board asked U. S. District Court Tuesday to say whether the board can legally permit a corporation to lease four high school buildings in the Arkansas capital.

A segregationist spokesman criticized the move as unnecessary. Ann Guthridge, a Little Rock Citizens Council leader, also said the board "is more interested in seeing the mixing of the races in our schools than seeing them operate."

The board asked the court for a quick answer. It said it is willing to lease the school buildings if the court will insure the board against contempt action.

LeRoy E. Smith To Attend Convention

LeRoy Smith, of the L. E. Smith New Agency, local periodical distributor and a member of the sponsoring industry, announced today that more than two hundred paperback books and periodicals have entered the 1958 second annual Maggie Awards competition.

He said, "Publishers, national distributors, and local wholesalers in the country have cooperated in the 'Maggies' program, which will show what a wealth of education, information and fine wholesome entertainment is available at local newsstands."

Entries include some seventy-five national magazines, more than one hundred paperback books and about twenty comics.

The "Maggies" will be awarded October 1, at Chicago's Pick-Congress hotel, during the Mid-American Convention.

Bennett Cerf, publisher, columnist and TV personality, will be master of ceremonies, and top-level executives will attend from the publishing industry.

Smith leaves Thursday to attend the Chicago convention.

AWARD CONTRACT

Herring's Nurseries of Hanover were awarded the contract for grading, seeding and planting on the site of the new Conewago Twp. Elementary School at a special meeting of the Conewago Twp. School Authority Tuesday evening at Midway. The Hanover offer was the lower of two bids received. The exact amount was not available today but was reported as "about $2,000."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

19.30 Inches of Rain Fell Here
wettest summer since the Johnstown flood forty-four years ago will end on Saturday. Autumn makes her official debut at 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

Rainfall in the three warm months of June, July and August this year totaled 19.30 inches, which approximated the precipitation during the summer of 1889, the year of the Johnstown disaster.

D. Of A. Order To Assemble
Here In Convention: Members of the Pennsylvania state council of the Daughters of America will arrive in Gettysburg Monday for the 42nd annual convention of the order.

About 400 or more delegates are expected to attend the annual meeting which opens Monday evening and closes Wednesday afternoon.

The organization is the women's auxiliary of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, whose 1953 convention was held here last week.

College Opens 102nd Session;
Hanson Speaks: Asserting "the greatest menace in the world today is softness," Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, urged new and returning students to equip themselves with habits which can be assets; to seek real values in life and to determine to be great men, in formally opening the one hundred and second year of the battlefield school at exercises in Bruns Chapel this morning at 11 o'clock.

Thompson Wins Golf Tourney:
Robert A. Thompson, of Gettysburg, carried off honors in the summer golf tournament at the Caledonia course, winning both the medal prize for lowest score and the first prize in the final flight, Mrs. Robert C. Miller, owner-manager, has announced.

Joseph A. Maguire Gets Revenue Post:
Joseph A. Maguire, son of Mrs. Margaret Maguire, East Middle street, has been appointed deputy assistant internal revenue collector for the York district.

Mr. Maguire took the oath of office a week ago and assumed his duties on Monday.

Five Barracks For Camp Here:
Plans for the construction of five wooden barracks and a headquarters building at the local Civilian Conservation Corps camp to be used during the winter months were announced today by officials at the camp.

Each barrack will be 111 feet long and 21 feet wide with a capacity of 42 men. They will be built end to end and will stand parallel with the present mess hall and work sheds which are also of frame construction. The new headquarters buildings will probably be erected in the center of the rectangle formed by the other buildings.

Stallsmith emerging victorious for Burgess; H. H. Thomas for tax collector and Charles S. Black and J. Arthur Phil for school directors.

On the Democratic ticket, the nominees were J. Alfred Holtzworth for Burgess; Charles H. Hess for tax collector. No announced candidates for school director were listed on the Democratic ticket but friends wrote in Snyder's name and that of John W. Brehm.

Schools Elect Class Officers:
Election of class officers at the Arendtsville Vocational school resulted as follows: Seniors, president, Paul Orner; vice president, Robert Carey; secretary, Richard

Today's Talk

MESSAGERS OF GOOD WILL
What a joy it is to meet, from time to time, those who carry within themselves messages of good will, cheer, and spiritual enrichment! They are God's aids, blessed by Him, and sent out into the world to give substance to His commands.

You meet those inspired people, ready to serve you, in many places — some of them that you would least expect. But that is why such people were created. Servants — and happy to be just that. But these people, too, are happy for that inward life that is so inspiring to them as well as to those whom they gladly serve.

Why can't each one of us be one of these messengers of good will? All that it takes to get started is to make the decision — and we can go ahead — silently performing a useful and happy work in the world. How many times we have been served by these inspired messengers of hope and good will. I wonder if we adequately appreciate what people do to make us happier.

I often think of the visiting nurses in our larger cities, and of the cheer and personal sacrifice that travels with them as they go from one place to another. I am sure that at the moment a door is opened to receive these messengers of light and hope the effect must be one of inspired inspiration.

These messengers of good will are inspired by the constantly increasing faith by which they live. This faith of ours is the happiest of all our possessions, and it can grow and grow as it is nourished by daily deeds of kindness and selflessness.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Man With a Cane"

Just Folks

A MOTHER'S PUNISHMENT

All mothers have a tender way with naughty little boys. Who seem inclined to disobey. And make an awful noise. Full many a whipping, a mother swears, She'll give for that and this, But when she gets her boy upstairs, She settles with a kiss.

How often to his room she's led The boy who disobeyed. And sent him supperless to bed When temper he displayed. How often, when she's heard him cry, She's called: "No more of this! I'll come to whip you by and by." Then settled with a kiss.

And that is every mother's way, So tender and so kind With naughty boys who disobey And will not learn to mind. She threatens them with whippings, And she scolds for that and this; But everywhere throughout the land She settles with a kiss.

Voting Machines More Widely Used

HARRISBURG (AP) — More Pennsylvania voters than ever before will have a chance to cast their ballots in a voting machine in the Nov. 4 election.

The State Bureau of Elections reported today that the number of voting machines this year has climbed nearly 5 per cent over the number in 1957.

Even more important, the bureau indicated in a survey, the number of districts using voting machines this year has climbed nearly 9 per cent. Out of some 8,898 voting districts this year, 4,929 will use machines.

Despite the increasing use of the voting machine as an election aid, 34 counties still have no districts using them.

Tragedy Stalked Life Of Beauty; Cancer Is Death Blow For Nedra Sanders

By R. G. VALERIANI

NEW YORK (AP) — Beauty and talent and sometimes riches — they served only at interludes to line with silver the great cloud of tragedy that hung over the life of Nedra Sanders.

Nedra, Mrs. Albert Broccoli since 1951, died of cancer Tuesday in Doctors Hospital. She was 39. Many of those years she spent trying to erase the memories of the violent deaths which followed her like a fateful shadow.

At 18, she was married for the first time, to William M. Evans of Chicago. It lasted three years. She sued for divorce in 1941. The same year she was selected queen of brunettes in a beauty contest. She became a sought-after cover girl.

Husband Kills Son

Then Evans returned tragically to her life. Incensed when she refused to drop the divorce action, he slashed her with a knife and stabbed to death their 2-year-old son Douglas and her mother Mrs. William J. Sanders. She obtained a divorce after Evans was sent to the Illinois State Prison for life.

Nedra went to Hollywood. She married popular singer Buddy Clark and bore him a daughter, Penny, in 1942.

Clark was killed in a plane crash in 1949. He was the only casualty among the six passengers.

Less than a year later, Penny, then 7, ran across a Brentwood, Calif., street to meet a playmate. She was struck and killed by a car.

Cancer Is Death Blow

In 1951, Nedra married Albert Broccoli. They had two children, Anthony, 4, and Christina, 2. Broccoli enjoyed success as a movie producer in England and they lived in London.

But Nedra fell ill last May and returned here for treatment. It failed.

Services will be held here Thursday. Then her body will be shipped to Los Angeles for interment Saturday.

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Tavern Assn. has renominated James Holder of Peckville for president.

He and most other top officers were renominated without opposition Tuesday, the final day of the association's fifth annual convention.

The other top officers renominated include Patrick Cavanaugh, Philadelphia, executive vice president; Elsa Ostroff, Allentown, treasurer, and Sebastian Cicala, Upper Darby, national director.

Eight candidates, including the four incumbents, were nominated for vice president. The elections will be held at the association's regular meeting in New Castle next month.

VIEWS DIFFER ON POLITICS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sharply divergent views on the role of businessmen in politics were expressed Monday by a New York Congressman and a Pittsburgh Democrat seeking election to congress.

L. T. Sellars, the Democrat, and Rep. Ralph W. Gwinn (R-NY) debated the issue at the Pittsburgh Press Club.

Sellars claimed that "business leaders are masters in the art of business operations, but they are wholly incompetent in the science of government."

Gwinn replied: "If the businessmen of America won't see to it that men are elected who are committed to restoring the constitutional government, who else will? If they do not, the labor classes will continue to set aside the constitutional limitations on government and substitute the unlimited powers of the socialist state instead."

IEW RE-ELECTS TOP OFFICERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The International Union of Electrical Workers re-elected its two top national officers for another term Tuesday.

James B. Carey and Al Hartnett, both Philadelphians, have held their positions in consecutive two-year terms since the union's first convention here eight years ago. The vote was unanimous.

The 700 delegates also approved a resolution calling for removal from the industry of its rival, the United Electrical Workers, an independent union.

The CIO expelled the UE in 1949 for alleged Communist domination and chartered the present IUE at that time.

The IUE has since grown to some 400,000 members. UE now claims a membership of about 50,000.

Littlestown UNIT BENEFIT PROGRAM GETS VFW APPROVAL

Donations voted by the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at their semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the post home included $10 to the Pennsylvania Association for the blind and $15 to the Littlestown High School Athletic Association. It was agreed to purchase a floral wreath to be placed at the Veterans Memorial on South Queen Street for Veterans Day, November 11.

Commander Bernard Kuhns was in charge of the meeting and requested all vets to purchase the Christmas cards which they have received by mail. The commander appointed a committee to arrange for the annual fall dance, to be held on Friday, October 31, at Banker's Restaurant and Recreation Center N. Queen St., as follows: Leo S. Riley, Earl J. Weaver and Edgar W. Wisotzky.

A review of the present insurance program of the unit was given by Quartermaster Charles Bridinger. It was voted to establish an insurance program within the unit in lieu of the present program. Under the new program, effective immediately, the death benefits for members will remain the same. A committee to handle the insurance fund was appointed as follows: Elmer W. Gall, James Bancroft, Howard Myers, Leo S. Riley and Charles F. Bridinger.

It was announced that a meeting of the commanders, quartermasters and membership chairmen of the 21st District will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Spring Grove VFW Post 3265; that Brame. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Eugene Leitzel and her son, Steven, of Shamokin Dam, who will spend the week with them. Mrs. Leitzel is Mrs. Kemper's sister.

Mrs. Amos Meyers and Mrs. Melvin Prosser have been named community workers for the Gettysburg Community Concert campaign being held September 22-27. Gary Crum will be the student subscription worker at the high school. Anyone desiring subscription for the concert series may contact Mrs. Meyers or Mrs. Prosser. Transportation to the concerts will be arranged by the committee for York Springs area subscribers.

Mrs. Esta Coulson, a patient in the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital, received a box of antheriums from the Hawaiian Islands. They were sent by Mrs. Violet Wright of Kaliua, Oahu.

Yankees' Speed And Defense May Nullify Braves' Batters

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees' speed and defensive excellence may more than nullify Milwaukee's batting superiority in the 1958 World Series.

Center fielder Billy Bruton can no longer run wild on the bases as he did before fracturing his leg last season. Left fielder Wes Covington, another of the Braves' mainstays, has been bothered all year with a pulled leg muscle. Red Schoendienst, 35-year-old second baseman, also has slowed down in the field and on the bases. So has shortstop Johnny Logan.

Thus, except for third baseman Eddie Mathews and right fielder Hank Aaron, the Braves will have no regular with more than average speed.

More N. Y. Stolen Bases
The Yankees have several fine baserunners from Mickey Mantle on down. Tony Kubek, Hank Bauer, Gil McDougald, Andy Carey and Yogi Berra are some of the others.

The extra base may come in handy in the tight, close-to-the-vest competition this one figures to be.

The Yanks have had 47 stolen bases, Milwaukee has 22. Another pertinent statistic shows the Braves with only 21 triples and New York with 39.

Have Defensive Edge
Defensively, the Yankees have the edge down the middle. The double play combination of McDougald and Kubek rates a shade better than Schoendienst and Logan. Mantle is faster and has a stronger throwing arm than Bruton. Catchers Yogi Berra of New York and Del Crandall of Milwaukee are about on a par as fielders.

The Braves have the advantage at first base where Frank Toore figures as a better glove man than Bill Skowron. Covington, the fielding star of last year's series, and rookie Norm Siebern of the Yanks both have had their troubles in left field this season. There are no marked advantages at the other positions.

Batting Averages Identical
The identical batting average for each club (.268) is somewhat misleading.

Mantle, having one of his poorest seasons despite a league-leading 41 homers, and rookie Siebern are the only day-in, day-out Yankee players with a chance of finishing over the .300 mark.

Aaron, again the big gun, Mathews and Covington have accounted for 94 of the Braves' 163 homers. Aaron moved into the .330 bracket after a slow start. Covington and Torre also are well over .300.

BUCKNELL CO-CAPTAINS

LEWISBURG, Pa. — A pair of senior starters, tackle Lew Hart and halfback Charlie Apgar, were chosen today as co-captains of the 1958 Bucknell University football team.

Hart, a 6-1, 200 pound powerhouse, has been a regular for two seasons and will be one of the mainstays of the Bison interior line. He hails from Morrisville, Pa. Apgar, at 5-10 and 168 pounds, is the most elusive runner in the Bucknell backfield and an excellent pass receiver. He is also one of his team's best defensive backs. Apgar's home is in Madison, N. J.

YANKEES LOSE SIXTH IN ROW SINCE PENNANT

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

In case you haven't noticed, the New York Yankees haven't won a game since the day they clinched the American League pennant more than a week ago.

They've lost six in a row since, their longest losing string in more than two years.

That's not exactly a rip-roarin' way to move into the World Series — which opens a week from today at Milwaukee — but you can't say Manager Casey Stengel is worried. His pitching staff has regrouped in that span, and his Yankees at least got rid of Ted Bowsfield, the pesty rookie southpaw who had beaten them three times, before they lost 9-3 at Boston Tuesday night.

Turley May Be Blue
But if there's one Yankee who isn't feeling chipper these days, it may be Bob Turley — the AL's leading winner who now has failed in two shots at his 22nd victory.

The big right-hander may get one more chance, against Baltimore this weekend in the windup of the regular season.

Turley escaped the defeat, but he was battered for five runs in the first inning and was through after Ted Williams hit a two-run homer, his 23rd in the fourth that tied it 7-11.

Williams also rapped a double and single and received a standing ovation from the fans when he left for a pinch runner in the winning eighth. He drove in four runs, picked up three points for a .317 batting average and apparently made up for that bat flinging incident of Sunday.

Runnels Ups Average
Teammate Pete Runnels (2-for-4) upped his AL-leading average to .325 for a seven-point edge over Detroit's Harvey Kuenn who is a point ahead of Williams at .318.

Kuenn was 1-for-5, losing a point, as the Tigers defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1. Cleveland retained a third-place tie with Boston and Detroit by beating Kansas City 7-5, and Baltimore defeated Washington 3-2 in the other AL games.

Home Wins For Tribe

Paul Foytack (14-13) nailed his seventh consecutive complete game for the Tigers with a four-hitter. He had a shutout until the eighth. Frank Bolling's 23th homer, a solo shot in the eighth, won it, handing Early Wynn (14-15) the loss.

Randy Jackson's three-run homer in the ninth gave it to the Indians after the A's had scored five in the first off 16-game winner Cal McLish. Hal Woodeshick (6-6) won it in relief. Dick Tomaneck (7-3) lost it.

Southpaw Jack Harshman (12-14) drove in all the Oriole runs with two homers, his fifth and sixth, and a double against loser Pete Ramos (14-16).

Jr. High Grid Loop Opens Thursday

The six-member South Penn Junior High School football conference opens its season with one game on Thursday, Shippensburg playing at Hanover at 2:30 p.m.

Other members of the conference include Gettysburg, Chambersburg, Washington Township and Waynesboro.

Ray Ellis' Gettysburg outfit waits until Thursday, October 2, for league action when it meets Washington Township on the latter's field.

BESMANOFF IS QUICK WINNER

SEATTLE (AP) — A new manager and several pounds of extra meat are the things that made Will Besmanoff the tiger who stopped Alex Miteff Tuesday night in a single, gory round.

That's what the Milwaukeean from Germany said. Will carried a portly 20½ pounds into his scheduled 10-round return bout with the Argentinian, who beat him in their only previous meeting. He gave away 5 pounds — and several acres of leather.

He won the fight when Miteff, bloody and lame, failed to come out for the second round.

The victory earned Besmanoff a bout with Zora Foley, rated among the top heavyweight challengers. Promoter Inigo Lucchesi said Foley had agreed to meet the winner, with terms and date still to be arranged.

Besmanoff said his new manager — Dr. J. M. Gules, oral surgeon and pathology instructor at Marquette University — "Teach me what I should know." He also credited Dr. Fules with building up his pudge, putting more authority in his punches.

Ticket Sale For Bullet-Bison Game Best Ever

From the advance sale of tickets here, the Gettysburg College football squad will have its largest backing of fans for a game at the Hershey Stadium when it collides with Bucknell Saturday evening at 8:30 in the 11th annual Rotary Bowl game.

Henry T. Bream, local athletic director, said the advance sale indicates it will be the best ever locally. He reported that nearly 1,200 students bought tickets last year and that even more will be sold this year.

Reserved seat tickets are also selling very well at the Britcher and Bender Drug Store, Gettysburg Hardware Store, Lane's Studio and Swope's Atlantic Station.

Gettysburg fans will occupy the middle two sections of the east stands. There are still plenty of choice seats available and more will be obtained if needed, said Bream.

It was revealed today that four bands will take part during the evening. In addition to the Bucknell and Gettysburg College bands, Gettysburg High School and Lewisburg High School will send their bands.

RICHE, WILLIE IN CLOSE RACE FOR NL CROWN

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Mays and Richie Ashburn are so close in their run for the National League batting title you couldn't push a bunt between them.

At the moment, Willie's ahead by .003 of a percentage point with a streaking .520 spurt for his last 14 games. Ashburn, batting a mere .424 for the same span, has a .3439 average to Mays' .3412.

Tuesday night, Mays was 3-for-5 against Chicago as the Cubs defeated the San Francisco Giants 3-2 in 10 innings. Ashburn was 2-for-4 against Milwaukee as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the champion Braves 6-5.

Cards Beat L. A.

St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 5-1 in another near-miss at a no-hitter by Sad Sam Jones in the only other NL game scheduled.

Mays, getting 200 hits for the first time in his career (Ashburn got his 200th hit Monday) beat out a dribbler in front of the plate, and a slow roller toward third Tuesday night. His other hit was a solid single in the eighth inning — when he went to second on Leon Wagner's single, stole third and gave the Giants a 2-1 lead on an infield out.

Wait Moryn's 25th home run gave the Cubs a tie in the ninth against loser Stu Miller (6-9), and Ernie Banks then bloomed an RBI double that won it in the 10th.

Richie Leads In Hits

Ashburn, who leads Mays in hits 207 to 201 but has only three games remaining to Willie's four, beat out a bunt that loaded the bases in the eighth and set up Ed Bouche's winning two-run single off lefty Juan Pizarro (6-4). Bouche also rapped a first-inning homer, his ninth.

Rookie Jim Owens won his first. Jones (14-12), who was within six outs of his second major league no-hitter when he had to settle for a 9-1 victory over Philadelphia a month ago, was within

PICK OHIO STATE, OKLAHOMA AND AUBURN TO WIN

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — They are painting the ceiling in the office and that odor you complain about is turpentine. The stench has absolutely nothing to do with the fact that 16 of 33 guesses last week, in the season debut, were incorrect.

This week's forecast: Ohio State over Southern Methodist; The bruising Buckeyes have Don Clark and Bob White plus a rugged line. SMU has Don Meredith and some strong ambitions. It could be close if Ohio State is thinking only of Big Ten problems.

Oklahoma over West Virginia: The Mountaineers collared Richmond by 44 points last week. This time they find out how it feels to lose.

Army To Win Opener

Auburn over Tennessee: Auburn, the country's No. 1 team last fall, isn't abdicating. Graduation took a heavy toll of Tennessee veterans.

Michigan over Southern California: Things, supposedly aren't as good at Michigan as they once were, but there should be enough left to handle the Trojans.

Iowa over Texas Christian: Strictly on a hunch. Army over South Carolina: Army is having quarterback woes but how can you lose when Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson are healthy?

And Navy, Too

Washington State over North western: The Cougars may be the best on the West Coast.

Navy over William & Mary: The Midshipmen's rebuilding project gets a solid test.

Oregon State over Kansas: The Jayhawks get another sound thrashing.

Wisconsin over Miami: The margin may be as thin as a palm leaf fan. It is a Friday night encounter.

Notre Dame over Indiana: No danger to the Irish in this one.

Picks Pitt, Penn State

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY

Detroit over Air Force, Georgia Tech over Florida State, Texas over Tulane, Denver over Utah State.

SATURDAY

EAST: Columbia over Brown, Cornell over Colgate, Dartmouth over Lafayette, Harvard over Buffalo, Delaware over Lehigh, Boston University over Massachusetts, Penn State over Penn, Princeton over Rutgers, Syracuse over Boston College, Virginia Military over Villanova, Yale over Connecticut, Pittsburgh over Holy Cross.

Other Selections

MIDWEST: Cincinnati over Wichita, Colorado over Kansas State, Dayton over Richmond, Drake over Colrad State U, Illinois over UCLA, Missouri over Idaho, Michigan State over California, Ohio University over Toledo, Oklahoma State over North Texas State, Purdue over Nebraska, Minnesota over Washington.

SOUTH: Mississippi over Kentucky, Mississippi State over Florida, LSU over Alabama, The Citadel over George Washington, North Carolina over Clemson, Vanderbilt over Georgia, Wake Forest over Virginia Tech, Duke over Virginia, Maryland over North Carolina State.

SOUTHWEST: Arkansas over Tulsa, Baylor over Hardin Simmons, Houston over Texas A&M, Texas Tech over West Texas State, Texas Western over New Mexico.

PACIFIC: Iowa State over Arizona, Brigham Young over Utah, Rice over Stanford Wyoming over Montana, Idaho State over Nevada, Arizona State over College of Pacific.

four outs of getting the job done Tuesday night at Los Angeles. Then Junior Gillian singled off Sam's glove, Bob Lillis followed with a sharp single, and rookie Ron Fairly junked the shutout with a double. That was all the hitting the Dodgers did, although Jones needed relief in the ninth when he gave up his sixth and seventh walks. He struck out four for a 2-0 total.

Johnny Podres (13-15) lost it.

JOHANSSON TOP CHALLENGER IN HEAVY RANKS

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson of Sweden not only earned the Fighter of the Month award by his quick knockout of Eddie Machen, but the feat has advanced him to No. 1 rating among the challengers for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

Johansson replaces Zora Foley of Chandler, Ariz., in that spot in the Ring magazine's semimonthly ratings, released today. Foley previously had fought a draw with Machen. He now is ranked second among the challengers, and Machen is dropped to fifth.

Archie Moore, ageless king of the light heavyweights, has been dropped from fifth to sixth place among the heavyweights.

Webb Drops

In the middleweight class Spider Webb, defeated by Gene Fullmer, dropped from fourth to fifth place, changing positions with France's Charley Humez. Fullmer remained in the No. 2 spot behind Carmen Basilio among the challengers for Ray Robinson's crown.

The welterweight division saw many changes, with Don Jordan of Los Angeles jumping from seventh place to the No. 1 spot among contenders for Virgil Akins championship. Sugar Hart went from fourth to second, Gil Turner from fifth to fourth. Rudolph Stutch of Louisville joined the select circle by gaining the No. 10 position.

Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich. now is ranked No. 1 challenger for the lightweight title, with Dulio Loi of Italy in the second spot.

20 GAMES ON MID ATLANTIC '58 GRID SKED

When the Gettysburg College gridgers open their season against Bucknell in the Rotary Bowl game at Hershey Stadium Saturday evening at 8:30, the game will be one of two inaugurating the newly-formed University Division league of the Middle Atlantic Conference. The other game pits Lehigh against Delaware at Bethlehem.

Only Muhlenberg will be ineligible for the University division title inasmuch as the Mules play but three division games. Four are required against division opponents during the first year of operation.

Primitive Facilities And Military Discipline Hold Sway In Red Vacation Camp

By BEVERLY DEEPE
Written for The Associated Press

Yes, there is a vacation-land in the U.S.S.R. But most Americans might think it easier to just keep working than to play the Soviet way.

While touring the Soviet Union as a member of an American student group, I visited a typical vacation camp: the Gorenlik tourist base in the mountains outside the Central Asian city of Alma-Ata.

At 7 a.m., the Soviet national anthem blared from loud-speakers, blasting snoozers out of the sleeping bags for 10 minutes of directed calisthenics outdoors.

Campers whipped their beds into shape and dashed to the mountain stream for a quick wash before reporting at 8 a.m. for a breakfast of rice, chicken, bread, butter and tea.

Hike Into Mountains

Then campers hustled out for a morning hike into the mountains, returning at 2 p.m. for a lunch of potatoes, beefsteak, soup, rolls, butter, fruit compote and tea.

Not everybody went on the hike. Some were already on other hikes of two to seven days into the high glacier peaks.

There was time out for a three-hour rest in the afternoon, "baths" in dishpans of water in the so-called "shower house," and then table tennis, pool, dominoes or volleyball before dinner.

Dancing and a movie followed dinner. Lights went out at 11 p.m. and exhausted vacationers tumbled into their sleeping bags.

No alcoholic beverages are allowed.

LAST LOAD OF '58 PLYMOUTHS REACHES DEALERS; TO BE PART OF END-OF-MODEL CLEARANCE SALE

Late summer, traditionally the thriftiest time to buy a new car, is even better this year at Plymouth dealers all over the U.S. Prices are down to the year's absolute lowest, and, thanks to the continued demand for good used cars, trade-in prices on old cars are still at a peak. RESULT: dealers are being made that mean today's buyer really gets a bargain.

He gets longer years of satisfaction, too—and eventually a higher trade. Plymouth's Silver Dart Styling has captured awards from every automotive critic, and will be new for years. At the same time, Plymouth's exhilarating performance and sports-car handling make the sports-car boys look to their laurels. Every car in Plymouth's End-of-Model Clearance Sale includes famous Torsion-Aire Ride, at no extra cost, Total-Contact Brakes, electric windshield wipers and other features that are Plymouth's alone in the low-price field.

No more spectacular bargains like these will be available when current stocks are sold. The best buy of the year is at your Plymouth dealer's now. Get there fast!

GARRY MOORE QUILTS MORNING SHOW TUESDAY

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — To Garry Moore the most frightening word in the language of television is "fixture."

Hearing himself referred to as a program "fixture" last season after years as the genial host of the CBS-TV morning show, he decided to unfix himself and strike out into the wild black nighttime of television.

The result: Next Tuesday the hourlong weekly Garry Moore Show will make its debut on CBS-TV.

"Have Wonderful Staff"

"If this flops, it's entirely my own fault and no one else's," says Moore. "I have a wonderful staff and CBS has given me every conceivable help."

One of the most modest and level-headed performers on television, Moore doesn't wish to pose as a hero in giving up a sure thing with his morning show in order to gamble on the hazards of a weekly nighttime show.

"Don't forget I'm still doing 'I've Got A Secret,'" he said. "That's an anchor to windward and I'm not courting starvation or anything. I simply mean that when you become a 'fixture' you're likely to get fat, dumb and happy. The creative side of entertainment has always been my biggest interest, and the new show is enabling me to be creative."

Moore admits his new show must come under the category of "variety," although he dislikes the connotations of the word in some minds. "But that's the only format—another word I dislike—that's big enough and loose enough to describe what we hope to do."

The emphasis will be on creative ideas and good writing rather than big-name stars.

"It's not the name of a guest that counts on a program," he said. "It's what you do with him."

His guests next Tuesday will be Johnny Mathis, Janis Paige, Red Skelton, Bob Keefe and Charlie Cantor. But he declines to say specifically what they will do on the sound theory that it's better viewers should see for themselves.

The soldier told authorities he feared imprisonment because of anti-Communist activity.

Border police said he will be granted asylum but the dog will be returned to Czechoslovakia.

Wins $25,000 With Spicy Apple Twists

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Don de Vault, 36-year-old Delaware, Ohio housewife, Tuesday won the $25,000 first prize in a national baking contest with a new version of that all-time favorite—apple pie.

She called her creation "spicy apple twists." In addition to putting apple pie into a new form with both taste and eye appeal, she halved the cooking time.

Her apple twists bake in 20 to 25 minutes, compared with 45 minutes to an hour for the time-honored variety of dessert.

The apple twists are made from strips of flaky pastry twisted around quartered apples, then brushed generously with butter and sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar. When done, they look like small eclairs.

The 10th annual bake-off was sponsored by the Pillsbury Flour Mills.

LEADER TALKS AT LIGONIER

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP)—Americans have made history a dry, dull subject rather than the living force that it is in the opinion of Gov. Leader.

Speaking Monday night at a dinner in his honor during Ligonier's week-long bicentennial celebration the governor said that "sometime within the next few years Pennsylvania might well establish a historical circuit."

He said definite historical routes should be outlined for vacationists and others to follow.

The governor also spoke prior to the first performance of a pageant titled "Westward—an Empire," which has a cast of 175.

On the agenda Tuesday was a parade of high school bands and a speech by Dr. Elvis T. Stahr, vice-chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh.

EUB CONFERENCE GETS UNDERWAY

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The 159th annual session of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of Evangelical United Brethren Church got under way here Tuesday with some 200 clergymen and lay delegates in attendance.

The conference represents 150 churches east of the Susquehanna River.

Sixteen sessions on various subjects were scheduled for this afternoon. The Rev. R. R. Stayer, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Denver, Pa., will be the principal speaker at a meeting tonight.

Pastoral assignments for the coming year will be announced Thursday night.

Monday night a farewell dinner was held for the Rev. George Epp, who will retire as bishop of the Eastern area of the church Oct. 9. His successor has not been announced.

THE SHOE BOX

CONFUSION ON DAYLIGHT TIME ACROSS PENNA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvanians will begin their autumn about with the clock Sunday when some communities revert to Eastern Standard Time while most stay on Daylight Saving Time.

A large majority of the Commonwealth's municipalities will stick with Daylight Time for another month, until Oct. 26. But enough switch back to Standard Time to confuse the situation in many areas.

Principal victims of the confused time situation will be workers living in a community with one time Standard and working in a community retaining DST.

How About Clock?

For example, Wampum, Lawrence County, goes Standard Sept. 28 while the remainder of the county stays Daylight. Leading industry in the town will continue Daylight, also. Consequently, fathers will go to work on Daylight time, while their youngsters will go to school on Standard time.

The question will be whether to turn the clock back one hour or let it alone.

Here's the picture by regions:

East — Virtually every eastern municipality will stick with Daylight Time until Oct. 26, conforming generally to the time pattern established by Philadelphia and its industries. The Easton-Allentown area will also delay turning back the clocks until Oct. 26.

Central Pa. Mixed Up

Central Schuylkill County reverts to Standard Time Sunday, as do these larger central Pennsylvania communities: Lewistown, Lewisburg, Sunbury, Milton, Montoursville, Hughesville and Muncy. Nearly all of the other communities in the region—including the state capital, Harrisburg — will continue Daylight Time. The state government officially operates on Standard Time, but adjusts its work schedules to comply with Daylight Time.

West — The vast majority of western communities adjust their time to match that of the major industries in their area. The Pittsburgh area will stay with Daylight Time until Oct. 26. So will the Altoona-Johnstown and Erie regions.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — It'll be tank detail for Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roll singer turned soldier, when he reports for duty in West Germany.

U.S. Army officials said Tuesday the Memphis singer will be assigned as tank gunner or loader or as driver.

Presley's unit is stationed at Friedberg, about 20 miles south-east of Frankfurt.

With 1,360 other trainees, Presley sailed from New York Monday for Bremerhaven aboard the troop transport Randall. The ship is due to arrive Oct. 1.

HIGH COURT DENIES APPEAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court refused Monday to reconsider the appeal of Mrs. Ethel Kravitz, 45, to be released in bail pending trial for the slaying of husband, Max.

The high court acted on a petition of defense Atty. William O'Hey Jr. that it hear argument on a writ of habeas corpus freeing Mrs. Kravitz.

At the same time the Supreme Court turned down O'Hey's request for oral argument for the writ. The petition was filed Aug. 28.

The court handed down no formal opinion, merely saying in a per curiam order that the judgment of the Montgomery County Court was affirmed.

Mrs. Kravitz has been in Montgomery County Prison, Norristown, since her husband, a 48-year-old realtor, was shot and bludgeoned to death in their Wynnewood home last July.

COURT DOCKETS ON PHOTO BAN CASE ARE CLOSED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The dockets on the lengthy Westmoreland County photo ban case are closed.

It was disclosed Monday that seven defendants have paid a total of $1,900 in fines.

The defendants were convicted of contempt of Westmoreland County Court in connection with the taking of news photographs of a murder defendant John Wesley Wable in a corridor outside a courtroom in 1954. They were charged with violating a court rule.

Made Test Case

Challenging the right of the court to impose such a ban, the Pittsburgh Post - Gazette and the Greensburg Tribune Review had the pictures taken to initiate a test case. There was no challenge of the court's right to ban photo graphs inside courtrooms.

Cited for contempt and convicted were David W. Mack, publisher of the Tribune-Review; William Block, publisher of the Post - Gazette; Andrew Bernhard, editor of the Post-Gazette; James G. Klingensmith and Don Bindyke, Post-Gazette photographers; Vince Johnson, Post-Gazette reporter; and Robert Purdy, free-lance photographer hired by the Tribune-Review.

The ban was upheld in both state and federal courts of appeal. Jail sentences imposed on the defendants were thrown out by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

ARCHAEOLOGY SUBJECT FOR ROTARY TALKS

William and Leroy Moose, Littlestown R. 1, members of the Pennsylvania Society of Archaeologists, were guest speakers at the meeting of the local Rotarians last evening at Schottie's. Their subject was "Amateur Archaeology." They discussed the neolithic culture of fifteen to twenty thousand years ago; archaic culture from four to twelve thousand years ago down to the woodland culture of more recent times.

Particular attention was given to the Susquehanna Indians, a branch of the Iroquois. They recounted that there were six known villages with about 3,000 population along the Susquehanna River in Lancaster County, most of whom died from the white men's diseases and the wars.

The brothers had on display a male skeleton of the middle woodland culture and one of an Indian found in a grave near New Brunswick, Md. The latter was described by the archaeologists as that of a man about 27 years old, five feet eight inches tall, who suffered with rheumatism, arthritis, rickets and toothache. The skeleton is about 900 years old.

Show Excavation Pictures
The brothers have themselves excavated and found many skeletons and other signs of Indian burial culture, and they showed pictures in connection with this. Clyde W. Crouse, acting chairman of the classification and membership committee, introduced William and Leroy Moose, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moose.

The meeting also included reports by Lloyd L. Staveland, Roy Koonz and Frank E. Basehoar on the workshop held for Rotarians in Steelton. Paul E. and William H. Renner were guests at the dinner meeting.

The club meeting next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. will be in charge of the public information committee, Luther W. Ritter, chairman, and P. Emory Weaver. The guest

The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Sir,
You have graciously aired the fallacy of un-economic lighting on our main street of Adams County. In doing this, you have rendered a civic service worthy of commendation by the citizens of Adams County. But however, you have permitted the publicity hungry officials of our Pennsylvania Highway Department, to have printed in your paper, false schedules of repairs so badly needed on the Lincoln Highway west of Gettysburg.

We have been reading in your paper since early summer, that the Pennsylvania Highway Department are starting or about to start, extensive repairs on this bad section of the Lincoln Highway. Only a portion of this repair is under way. And, unless something is done to get this repair completed prior to the forthcoming election and onset of inclement weather, "we," the public, may be forced to continue the use of this bad road for some time.

As the promises of the Pennsylvania Highway Department were released to us through your news service, it is only fitting and proper that any deviation of this promise should be released to the Highway Department through the same channel.

YORK COUNTY
Consolidation of the First National Bank and Trust Co., Red Lion, and The First National Bank, Stewartstown, was approved Tuesday by the boards of the two banks. The latter will be a branch of the former.

Reginald I. Lippy, Hanover, was promoted to first deputy recorder of deeds by York County Recorder Luther H. Yohe.

Mrs. Frank Kuykendall, new leader, and the fly-ups were introduced Monday evening as Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 33 met in the former schoolhouse, Fairfield. There were 26 girls present.

Announcements included a hike planned for Saturday. Patrols met separately in their work areas to plan the new season's work. Later they gathered for the friendship circle and good night.

The Lilies of the Valley Patrol decided to call themselves the Tiger Lilies this year.

Other leaders present were Mrs. Vaughn Dagenhart, Mrs. Galen Mohler and Mrs. Robert Kleppinger.

Four Children Are Baptized On Sunday

At the morning worship service Sunday at the Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. William E. Pensternaker, baptized the following children:

Andrea Sheeden Wickerham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham; Susan Beth Slaybaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Slaybaugh; Donna Jean Feather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Feather; and Donna Carolyn Landsperger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Landsperger.

The following new members were also received into the membership of the church: Mr. and Mrs. James Slaybaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kreible, Miss Anna Clapsaddle, Harry Gilbert, Mr. Earl Hollabaugh and Glenn Timmons.

A reception was given honoring the new members in the church social rooms Sunday evening with 75 persons in attendance.

No Third Quarter
Reading Co. Dividend

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Reading Co. has decided not to grant a common stock dividend for the third quarter of 1958.

This is the first time the railroad has skipped a quarterly dividend since the four-year-plan dauntless efforts of interested parents and volunteer workers.

Mrs. Weed, who spoke on the general topic, "New Hope for Retarded Children," stressed the importance of "widening our vision in areas of education, research, legislation and institutional care." Money received by the state group through dues is used to provide scholarships to train needed personnel, for bulletins, pamphlets, films and research, Mrs. Weed said.

She added, "We must all work together to remove the stigma attached to having a retarded child. We must bear in mind that about 3 per cent of our population is retarded and that retardation is not a respecter of parents. It is difficult for a parent to accept the fact that his child is retarded, but he reaches a mature understanding of retardation when he can say: 'What can we do to help all retarded children?'"

Plan Supper

At a discussion period following the talks Mr. and Mrs. Weed suggested that the local chapter begin its activities by "inaugurating a parent education group to study the areas of need."

A covered dish supper will be held in connection with the next meeting of the chapter October 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Day Care Training Center. Following the dinner, the group will address envelopes for a membership drive.

Warrington Friends
Will Meet Sunday

The annual meeting of the Society of Friends at Warrington, near Wellsville, will be held Sunday, J. Ernest Hartman announced today.

The meeting for worship will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The annual conference will begin at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. J. Barnard Walton, field secretary of the Friends General Conference will speak on "How Friends Face World Problems."

was initiated in 1913. The last dividend was 25 cents and those before that were 50 cents a share.

The company had no comment on its decision, announced Tuesday. Earnings have been under one million dollars for the first eight months of 1958 as compared with $6,365,000 for the same period in 1957.

FIFTY FIREMEN

personnel can arrive to handle the matter.

Captain Sill said, "We need a band of trained men under Civil Defense because many explosive devices do not look like bombs. Many are designed to look like anything in the world other than bombs in order to catch the unwary. In addition the DC Explosives Reconnaissance worker checks reports to determine that there is actually an unexploded bomb present, and to determine its location. There are many rumors. Our small detachment cannot spend its time running all over the state to check rumors when there may actually be a bomb somewhere that needs attention."

Meet Again Tonight

"In time of war you would have a tremendous job. And we can but train for possible warfare, hoping that it will never come. But even in time of peace there is need. The other day a Civil War shell that had lain on a mantel for years exploded. Fortunately no one was in the living room of the ranch type home where it occurred. But the owner will have to put a new front on his house. Many of the round Civil War type shells were solid shot. But some were filled with powder and sharpnel. They can still explode.

"There are also grenades and other explosive devices that look like anything but grenades and which grace mantels in our state—souvenirs brought home from the last war. It is possible that your training here may pay off some day when you enter a home as a member of your fire company to fight a fire and find you are facing something that could be highly explosive."

Sill said the group will undergo an examination Thursday night during the last hour of the three nights of instruction. Those achieving a mark of 75 or better on the test will be qualified by the state Civil Defense director as authorized Explosive Ordnance Reconnaissance agents.

County Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver introduced the instructors to the group and told the firemen that since the local course is sponsored by Civil Defense they will be covered by insurance during the course of the instruction held Tuesday night, tonight and Thursday night.

GRANGE ELECTS
AT EMMITSBURG

The Emmitsburg Grange met Wednesday evening in the Emmitsburg Public School with Harry Swomley presiding. Four guests and 33 members were present. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Zimmerman.

The dates for the annual Community Show was set as Friday and Saturday, October 10 and 11. A meeting of the Pomona Grange will be held at Ballanger Grange Hall on October 25.

Election of officers was held showing the following results: Master, Bernard M. Welby; overseer, Edward Meadows; lecturer, Mrs. Ralph Lindsey; steward, Greer Keilholz; assistant steward, Richard Waybright; secretary, Mrs. Clara Harner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Martin; chaplain, Loy Hess; treasurer, George J. Martin; gatekeeper, Harry Swomley Jr.; Ceres, Margaret Meadows; Pomona, Mrs. William Wivell; Flora, Mrs. Mary Krom; lady assistant steward, Ann Robbs; Edgar G. Emrich was elected to the executive committee for a three-year term. Mrs. Helen Swomley was named juvenile matron.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the following committee: Helen Swomley, Mrs. George Martin and Mrs. Carrie Hess.

OHLER REUNION

The descendants of the late T. Jones Ohler held their third annual reunion on Sunday at St. James Church along the Littlestown-Harney Rd. About 40 persons from Hanover, Abbottstown, Littlestown and Gettysburg attended. It was decided to hold the reunion at the same time and place next year.

CHANGE MEETING HOUR

The meeting of the Adams County Senior Extension Club Thursday evening at the Bendersville Community Hall will be held at 7 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock as originally scheduled, it was announced today. A covered dish supper will precede the business session. Final plans will be made for the public chicken barbecue to be held Saturday night at Bendersville. A motion picture in color made at the Tri State Conference held in the Poconos in March will be shown.

Enlarged And Modernized Bendersville Post Office One Of Finest In Section

An enlarged lobby with modern equipment has made the Bendersville post office, as one recent visitor said, "one of the finest small post offices anywhere in the area."

Patrons, who for 20 years have had to crowd into a veritable "two-by-four" of public space are now enjoying increased elbow room as a result of a Post Office Department decision this spring that the Bendersville office had to be enlarged.

Ever since Dyson Kennedy became postmaster in 1938, the office has been located in one room in the Kennedy residence.

Get New Desks
Today only a few touches here and there are needed to make the conversion complete. The office space has been doubled with the lobby getting the major benefit. Where once a small corner shelf served as a place to write, there are now two new plastic-topped lobby desks with about six times the writing area.

All of the boxes are new, too, and are set in a new wood partition finished in a light gray that harmonizes with the lobby desks and the new linoleum floor.

The change was precipitated early this year when post office inspectors noticed the crowded conditions in which Postmaster Kennedy and his wife, who assists him, had to work. There were a lot of packages the day the inspectors were there and they were forced to suspend their examination of the office records while the mail was being sorted.

Jam Provokes Decision
Everything was jammed. Parcels covered all the working space. Even the typewriter and adding machine were hidden. The inspectors said that something would have to be done. They would make some recommendations.

As a result other department men came one day to measure the existing quarters. But it happened to be one of those days when Puerto Rican workers from neighboring orchards were paid. Whenever that happens the Bendersville post office is busy issuing money orders to workers who send home some of their pay. The lobby was jammed. The post office men couldn't get in, let alone take any measurements. That proved to be the clincher.

Then where to get the space to expand became the problem. If the office was to remain in the Kennedy home, the living room would have to go. And Mrs. Kennedy had just gotten a new living room suite. The decision to make the sacrifice was a hard one, but it was made.

Changes Disconcerting
As it turned out, Mrs. Kennedy's was not the only sacrifice. In the old office there were both call boxes and lock boxes. Both sets of boxes were numbered, beginning with 1, which meant that there were about 50 duplicate numbers. But with the new boxes there were no duplications. Who would have to give up his old box number became a burning question.

Post office officials ruled that holders of lock boxes should have first choice in assignment of numbers for the new boxes. It seemed almost catastrophic to some call box patrons that they had to give up box numbers that had been used by their families for years.

Call box patrons found that they also had another adjustment to make. There were no call boxes in the new equipment so that they would now have to pay the lock box rate, 50 cents per quarter, instead of the 50-cent call box rate. It all took a little getting used to.

Say Penna. Pays Heavy Tax Levies

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce has predicted that Pennsylvanians will pay a half-billion dollars in direct and indirect taxes from increased spending programs initiated by Congress and the Federal Administration.

The Chamber said Congress and the executive branch authorized seven billion dollars of increased spending for the current fiscal year, ending next June 30. The tax estimate was based on the Chamber's calculation that Pennsylvanians pay approximately 7.14 per cent of federal spending costs.

FARMERS USING PLASTIC SILOS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department reports many Pennsylvania farmers are using plastic and new trench silos to take care of an abundance of corn.

The report Tuesday, based on the department's crop reporting service survey for the week ended Monday, showed corn throughout the south and central regions of the state was in the dough stage. Shucking of some of the earlier varieties was in progress in southern counties.

The report continued: Barley and winter oats are showing green in many areas of the state and wheat has been planted in some sections.

"Pastures were freshened during the week and are in above average condition for this time of year. Rains which fell over most of the state were needed in many localities of the south and central areas to help farmers continue fall grain seedbed preparation.

"But these rains slowed potato digging. Good yields and good quality were reported in most areas, but rotting and blight is prevalent in some locations due to continuous wet weather, particularly in the north."

There was a flurry of complaints at first but these are becoming fewer as the benefits from the improvement become apparent.

Patrons find that they can now pick up their mail any time the lobby is open, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. except Saturdays when it closes at 4 p.m. As they become accustomed to the combination locks on the boxes, fewer patrons are calling at the window for mail, the postmaster said.

Bendersville post office has about 170 box-holding patrons, including, in addition to townspeople, area farmers who seem to prefer to pick up their mail in town.

Service to and from the office includes five incoming and four outgoing mails.

SAY KENNEDY GOOD PROSPECT FOR PRESIDENT

By RELMAN MORIN

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Judging from what they're saying about Sen. John Kennedy at the Southern Governors Conference today, you would think he was Dixie-born, a descendant of Robert E. Lee, and a man who eats hominy grits and corn pone three times a day.

Kennedy, a Yankee from Massachusetts, is that popular in the South, so they say.

In any discussion of the Democratic presidential nominee in 1960, Kennedy's name leads the field by a wide margin here.

"South Likes Kennedy," said Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia.

"He's got a lot of friends down our way," said Mississippi's James P. Coleman.

"I find more favor for Kennedy than any other person," said Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida. "Basically, Florida Democrats feel he's a good prospect to win, he's sound, and he has the qualifications."

What about the religious factor? Kennedy is a Roman Catholic. Would this cost him votes in the heavily Protestant Southern states?

Southerners reply with a vigorous "No."

"Working Hard"
They say religious feeling has evaporated in the South to a point where it is no longer a major political consideration.

"I'll put it this way," said Tennessee's Frank Clement, "I hope that no member of my own family would vote against a man because of his religion, be he Catholic, Protestant or Jewish."

Kennedy has been working hard in the Southern states for more than a year. He has traveled continually, accepted innumerable invitations to speak. He seems to have made a highly favorable impression.

SHOT 9 TIMES, LANDLORD DIES

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A rooming house landlord was shot nine times Tuesday night and fatally wounded.

A roomer found Max Weiss, 29, sprawled at the foot of the stairs in his rooming house in nearby Bristol Borough. Weiss, who lived at the place, died a few minutes later.

Police said the killer pumped two bullets into Weiss while he was standing on the second floor landing, then seven more after the landlord staggered or fell down the stairs.

Two roomers were held for questioning. They were Charles Kyvelos, 24, who told police he heard the shots and found Weiss, and John Kozar, 40.

Police said they found a .32-calibre revolver in Kozar's room. They said Weiss was shot with a .32.

FARM INCOME UP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Cash income from farm products sold during the first six months of this year was 6 per cent higher than the same period last year, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

The department said the 6 per cent increase gave Pennsylvania farmers an additional $23,388,000 during the period.

Fear Reds Will Try To Put Far East Crisis In Summit Meet, Peiping Represented

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst

Hints from Warsaw suggest Red China may make a pitch to bring the Far East crisis before a summit meeting at which Peiping would be represented.

These hints come from Communist informants at the scene of the U.S.-Red Chinese talks in the Polish capital. Communist informants have a way of scenting how the wind blows.

Such a drive would be difficult to counter. It could have the appearance of a Red Chinese concession to peace.

The Red Chinese have the initiative. Peiping has the power to turn Far East crises on and off as easily as turning a spigot. It was Peiping initiative that turned the spigot in mid-August, after months of a sullen, glowering sort of near-truce throughout the three months of the dangerous midsummer Arab East crisis.

Peiping has been accused of trying to counter. It could have the appearance of a Red Chinese concession to peace.

ing to shoot its way into U.N. membership. It could also try blackmail. The U.N. Assembly's Steering Committee has voted to bar the Red Chinese membership issue for this year, but India and six other Asian-African nations are clamoring for a reversal of the decision.

The Asian-African move reflects genuine fear in the East that the Formosa Strait crisis could explode into war. Pressure upon the United States to give ground increases.

The dilemma facing American policy is whether to stick stubbornly to its China policy and risk wholesale loss of friends both in Europe and Asia, or to give ground under Communist pressure and lose prestige.

U. S. Bids For Time
The United States seems jockeying for time. Its moves appear to add up to a calculated gamble. Washington seems to be betting the Red Chinese—and even more, the Soviets—are not going to let the Formosa crisis explode into major war.

What's behind this reasoning? The cold war's history shows a definite pattern—a rhythmic rise and fall in temperatures in the Far East. The pressure never really was lifted at all in the past half-dozen years. But the lulls have been noteworthy, seeming to betoken a cautious Red preference for handling just one major crisis at a time.

Sporadic Shelling
Red shelling of the offshore islands has been going on sporadically all this time. But the lulls came in 1953 immediately before and after Stalin's death, at the height of the 1954 Indochina crisis, at the time the Soviets were manufacturing the Geneva spirit in 1955, and again during each of the Middle East crises of recent years.

The guns were virtually silent. The Red Chinese hand is on the spigot again, ready to turn it off if the reward is sufficient. That sort of bait could be calculated to quicken a stampede for recognition of Red China as an insurance against war. Peiping's representation at the summit might lend such a movement powerful momentum.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—A Park Road Elementary School here looked like a half-time show. Everybody had a hula hoop, practically all this time. But the hoops came in 1953 immediately before and after Stalin's death, at the height of the 1954 Indochina crisis, at the time the Soviets were manufacturing the Geneva spirit in 1955, and again during each of the Middle East crises of recent years.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Robert Patience of Midvale, Utah, drew a fine in justice court on a traffic citation. The charge: Speeding.

3 YEARS AGO SINCE IKE HAD HEART ATTACK

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big garrison flag wasn't flying that gloomy Saturday morning three years ago today. We didn't know it then but it meant President Eisenhower had suffered a heart attack.

Today, his 68th birthday less than a month away, the President is ruddy and apparently much refreshed after 3½ weeks of a lot of golf by the windswept sea at Newport, R.I.

Today most folks never would guess just by looking at Eisenhower that since the heart seizure in Denver exactly three years ago he also had brushed close to death with ileitis in June 1956.

Appearances Deceiving
They wouldn't guess, either, that last November he was hit by a slight stroke which affected his speech for a while.

But if you are a reporter who has covered Eisenhower's activities since he was nominated for the presidency in July 1952, then you know that this man's appearance means little—indeed, it can be most deceiving—so far as the state of his health is concerned.

Take, for example, that Saturday morning in Denver—Sept. 24, 1955—when the big garrison flag wasn't flying in front of the President's vacation office at Lowry Air Force Base.

To sleepy-eyed newsmen arriv-

Stabbed Minister Now Has Pneumonia

NEW YORK (AP) — A touch of pneumonia has complicated the condition of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

X-rays disclosed the pneumonia in King's lower right lung. Doctors said it had been expected and was nothing to worry about.

The 29-year-old Montgomery, Ala., pastor, advocate of nonviolent resistance for Negroes in their struggle against segregation, has been on the critical list at Harlem Hospital since Saturday. He was stabbed with a steel letter opener by a Negro woman in a Harlem department store as he autographed copies of his book "Stride Toward Freedom."

The woman, Mrs. Izola Ware Curry, 42, is under mental observation at Bellevue Hospital, where doctors said she could give no coherent explanation for the attack on King.

ing at the base at 7:30 a.m. from a downtown hotel, that at the moment was good news. It meant they were on hand ahead of the early-rising Eisenhower—and that takes some doing—to see him arrive from the Lafayette Street home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud.

A medium-size American flag fluttered from the staff in the murky early autumn weather. But a much larger garrison banner always was run up in its place the minute the President arrived, and it had not been hoisted yet.

Time passed, and still no word the President was on his way.

The newsmen pondered the possibilities, but the delay wasn't disturbing. Apparently the President, for once, was coming to the office a bit later. Or maybe he had decided to skip the office and go directly to the golf course.

Not until mid-afternoon did they learn the real reason the garrison flag wasn't run up.

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—A nationally known authority on youngsters, Judge Phillip Gilliam of Denver, predicted to the Western Probation and Parole Assn. that juvenile delinquency in the United States will rise by 50 to 100 per cent within the next 10 years.

"We've got to make decency popular in America," he said. "Children today pride themselves on rough conduct."

STATE STUDIES STATE AID TO SCHOOLS PLAN

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Department of Public Instruction disclosed plans today to launch an important new phase of a month-old study into state aid for schools.

From this new phase, the study group headed by Dr. Leoh Ovsiew of Temple University hopes to learn whether there is a definite, substantial relationship between the amount of money spent per pupil on education and the quality of education he receives.

The issue is not as simple as it sounds, for behind it looms a possible basic change in the Keystone State's concept of providing financial support for its public schools.

To Test Sample Schools
Sometime in November, Dr. Ovsiew said, his research group hopes to single out about 100 of Pennsylvania's 2,300 - odd school districts and apply a test of quality developed by the New York State Department of Education.

"If we find that a majority of the schools rated poor spend so much per pupil on education and that a majority of the schools rated good spend a much higher amount per pupil on education, then I think we can safely say there is a definite correlation between expenditures and quality," Dr. Ovsiew said.

Dr. Ovsiew's over-all study was begun some 18 months ago. It has been based on the hypothesis that an alternate concept of subsidizing schools to the one used in Pennsylvania is the superior.

Alternate Concept
Pennsylvania, he said, uses what educators refer to as the "equalization" concept. Billed down, it means that the Legislature gives the state so much money to spend. Formulas then are developed for figuring out how much each school district is going to get, generally based on its ability to pay.

The alternate concept advocated by Dr. Ovsiew and, he said, used in about half the states, is known as the "foundation" plan. Under this plan, specialists figure out an average expenditure per pupil to meet certain minimum standards. After that remains the problem of how much the Legislature is willing to appropriate to meet these standards.

Years To Go
"We could pick out portions of foundation plans used in other states and adopt them for our use," Dr. Ovsiew said. "But we want to develop a program that is best suited to Pennsylvania's own school needs. It may even be that we'll find that the present system is the best. However, there is pretty general agreement among educators that the foundation plan provides a more rigorous and realistic manner of subsidizing the schools."

The study still has some 3½ years to go, after which a final report will be made to the State Council of Education. It would be up to the council and administration officials, Dr. Ovsiew emphasized, to decide whether to go before the Legislature with recommendations for changes.

Sen. Joseph Yosko Is Buried Tuesday

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—State Sen. Joseph J. Yosko, a victim of cancer, was buried Tuesday in Holy Saviour Cemetery.

Attending the final rites for the Northampton County Democrat were state Democratic Chairman Joseph M. Barr, Congressman Francis E. Walter of Easton, Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, Judge John Morgan Davis, candidate to succeed Furman, and other state party leaders.

Yosko died Friday in Atlantic City at the age of 54.

MEDAL FOR DEARBORN

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader today cited Dr. Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, for his "vital mission of educating" the nation in traffic safety.

Dr. Dearborn, a native of Crawford County, was presented with the Pennsylvania Meritorious Medal, the highest award the Commonwealth can bestow, at special ceremonies at the capitol.
